

THE PRACTICE

King & Wood's FDI practice is recognized across China as one of the largest and most respected. Our FDI practice offers a full range of services to our clients. Close working relationships with the relevant agencies allows the firm to stay abreast of changes in relevant regulations, laws, and policy.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

Acquisitions of Businesses & Assets
Company Secretarial Services
Establishing Foreign Invested Enterprises (FIE)
Establishing Representative Offices
Liquidation & Dissolution of FIEs
Ongoing Legal Advice for FIEs
Private Equity Funds
FDI related Transactional documents

Our FDI services include:

- Aiding clients through the approval and registration procedures for establishing legal entities.
- Post-establishment legal advice
- Preparing board resolutions & minutes
- Inspection & evaluation of companies or assets
- Assisting clients in determining the most effective ways to structure deals
- Monitoring the complete investment or divestment process for clients
- Daily legal support to clients in their operational activities
- Compliance regarding taxes, foreign exchange, labor, environmental protection, & customs
- Assisting in share transfers, capital increases, changes of business scope, restructuring of the board or management, and extension of the operation term.

Foreign investors face challenges investing in Chinese numerous Chinese sectors. King & Wood has a solid understanding of the complex legal and regulatory issues that foreign investors face in each sector as well as the business environment in which they operate.

Our ability to match our depth and expertise with the needs of our clients helped us complete some of the most innovative deals in China. Many of the deals completed by King & Wood were the first of their kind in China.

Our firm has the ability to draw on lawyers across multiple disciplines to meet the distinctive requirements of each client. King & Wood's understanding of the landscape will ensure effective compliance and smooth operation regarding complex and evolving FDI laws.